

144,000: 51 – Mother Love Heals Asia

In my morning meditation on October 26, in my inner vision, Sol-O-Man appeared in her light body above me. A circle of light emanated from her core, like unto the “O” in the center of her name, which she placed around my head. My cerebrum and hypothalamus were surrounded in love, light and divine mystery; and enveloped in wholeness, harmony and holiness. All of my 12 spiritual powers were interconnected and working together as one, in and through my 12 cerebral thrones. My cerebrum (the primary site for communion with the I Am Self) and my hypothalamus (the primary site of the soul/subconscious) were united in loving oneness.

(Sol-O-Man is the Twin Soul of Sananda, whose past incarnations include Jesus the Christ and Gautama the Buddha. Sol-O-Man incarnated with Jesus as his mother, Mary; and with Gautama as his wife, Yasodhara. She is my master teacher. I trained under and served her when she was Zolanda, high priestess of the Earth Temple in Atlantis, which was located near present day New York City. With deep familial affection, often I simply call her Mom.)

Prior to this communion, I had thought of her name mostly as representing the “soul of man.” Now, with the focus on the central figure of the zero or circle or letter O, an additional meaning came to me: Sol means “of the sun, superconscious or I Am Self”; O symbolizes “the soul, the womb, the nothingness, the subconscious or feminine aspect of mind in and through which all divine ideas enter, pass and come into creation”; Man indicates “the physical, conscious manifestation.” So, Sol-O-Man is a personification of the Divine Feminine, the Mother-of-God aspect, the feminine polarity expression of divine peace and love. She selflessly serves the soul of man, as a mother loves and devotes herself wholeheartedly to all of her beloved children.

Over the last 150 years, Sol-O-Man/Mary has redescended in her light body from the Christ or etheric realms and appeared numerous times throughout the West, including at Mexico City, Mexico (Virgin of Guadalupe); Lourdes, France; Fatima, Portugal; Garabandal, Spain; Cairo, Egypt (in photo to right, she stands to the left of the church cupola); Medjugorje, the former Yugoslavia; and in multiple communions with, and channelings through, Nada-Yolanda of Mark-Age (who made her transition in 2005). In these appearances and messages, she has exhorted her disciples to love God and love one another, in order to prepare for the Second Coming of Jesus. In essence, she has proclaimed and demonstrated that “mother love” will heal the souls of individuals and nations, and thereby set the stage for Jesus’ return at the end of the Latter Days or purification period, sometime in the next 13-33 years. Yet, no man knows the hour.

Sol-O-Man is revered throughout the East not as Yasodhara, but rather as Kwan Yin, the mythological goddess of mercy and compassion (see statute to left). Originally, Kwan Yin is said to have been a man who became a Bodhisattva in India; though he attained enlightenment, he did not rest in nirvanic bliss in the heavens but rather served all sentient beings on Earth. As Buddhist teachings spread through China, this male Bodhisattva morphed into the female Kwan Yin. Given varying names throughout Asia, she is particularly venerated by women and common people; and is said to have special love for animals. Some in the East have equated her with Mary (see picture of Kwan Yin with child to right). Those throughout the East who pray to Kwan Yin are connecting with Sol-O-Man; and being loved, blessed and mothered by her.

Visualization: Encircle yourself in a cocoon of light whose motherly mantle protects you and fills you with the zeal to “mother” others, especially the 12,000 elect of the 12 island and peninsular nations of Southeast Asia and the Far East. Many light workers there function in horrid, dangerous, treacherous conditions; beset by dictatorships, repressive Communist leaders, crime, poverty, disease, environmental devastation and earthquakes/tsunamis. They need all the compassion and mercy that we can share. Nada-Yolanda has received that many islands in this region will sink in the next 250 years. Already, half of the Edenic rainforest in Indonesia, which is the world’s second largest, has been destroyed; causing the extinction of untold species of animals, and threatening catastrophic climate changes worldwide.

Envision Sol-O-Man hovering in her light body above you. From her heart comes a circle of light that she places around your head. This is like a crown that stimulates and opens, accelerates and fills your crown chakra/cerebrum with mother love. It reinforces and completes the free-flowing circle of energy that traverses through all of your cerebrum’s 12 power thrones. You feel the circular band of light not only in your cerebrum at the top of your brain, but also around your hypothalamus and medulla at the base of your brain. These latter two organs comprise the subconscious, feminine, soul site of you, which is a passageway or birth canal from the cerebrum (Sol or sun or superconscious) via the soul (O or subconscious/womb) to the rest of your body (Man or manifestation of your light body in and through your physical temple).

Picture yourself in your light body hovering over Southeast Asia and the Far East. In concert with Sol-O-Man and other feminine ascended masters, place a circle of light around this whole region, which encloses it in mercy, compassion and forgiveness. Mother love heals this zeal throne and its 12,000 elect, who make up a holy circle of sun light that shines upon and mothers all inhabitants of this entire area. Mother love infuses the soul/subconscious/hypothalamus of each citizen with pink zeal and enthusiasm to heal humanity. The Mother is in us and we all are in Her. Zealous, devoted, dedicated, selfless mother love is in action. So be it. So it is.
