

InVest: 47 – Forward to Eleven in Heaven

On August 12, 2010, I dreamt that I was with Phillel and MariLyn. We were leading a band of light workers as we walked across a plain or desert, surrounded by mountains. Our immediate destination was a city called “Eleven” but portrayed as 11, as in the number eleven. The city was before us, filled with light and power, looking like a piece of heaven on Earth, maybe a day’s journey away; with no hazards, obstacles or enemies in sight. Many invisible masters were behind us, which I sensed clearly but most others did not. In particular, El Morya-Mark was inspiring, guiding and leading us. To speak of this to the others, I proclaimed that it was like we were on the fairway of a golf course. El Morya had hit his golf ball to the green, which ended up right next to the hole. All we had to do was to go to the hole and putt the ball into it to make a birdie, which is one under par, an excellent score.

Interpretation: This dream came via my imagination faculty/third eye/psychic senses, and was given in a series of symbols and images as part of a short story, poem or play. To comprehend its many meanings and central lesson, I used my power of understanding/five senses/analytical aspect of my mind. Imagination involves mostly the subconscious mind (visions, dreams, symbols) whereas understanding is more so the realm of the conscious mind (facts, numbers, deduction). The two must work together as one, as represented by the number 11 in the dream, which was shown not as 11 but rather as 11. Each line of the one was a simple, vertical line. Both lines were joined and aligned with one another. This unit was aligned vertically with the superconscious or I Am Self. As above, so below; heaven on earth.

Over the years, I have been given and developed an understanding of multiple images and symbols, which have become a shorthand or code with which Spirit, via my Christ Self, guides and guardians convey messages. Charles Fillmore wrote that he received in this way. All of us do, to one degree or another, in dreams, visions or inner knowings.

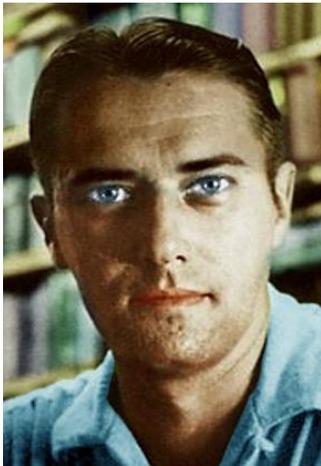

In my current dream, personally, the band of light workers represents the 144,000 cells in my cerebrum; planetarily, they portray the 144,000 elect who lead the way for all on earth to I Am consciousness. Individually and collectively, we are walking across a plain or desert, meaning through our own aridity, darkness and temptations. The plain also portrays the plain of Armageddon in Israel, a desert at the foot of the mountain of Megiddo, where countless battles have been waged throughout known history.

Armageddon was given via John in Revelation to symbolize the battle between good and evil that is being waged within and without, in every corner of Earth. John’s visions in Revelation and our dreams and visions are symbolic, not literal, in nature. However, fundamentally focused folks of all religions typically mistake their visions, dreams and spiritual teachings, and give them literal interpretations (an error in understanding). So, remember, Armageddon is a symbol.

As shown in my dream, the next step for light workers worldwide in the waging war of Armageddon is clear. For weeks, we have been under psychic attack, by our own negativity and more so by that of others on earth and in the lower astral planes. Now, as shown in my dream, no enemies are in sight. Previously we hunkered down. Now we move forward again. Yea!

The city in my dream represents an outpost or initial manifestation of the New JerUSAlem or I Am Nation on Earth. The number eleven, depicted as II, represents the beginning of a whole new structure or phase of development, another sphere to experience, for it doubly emphasizes unification or one (I); but takes it into another level.

We begin with the One Power, Presence and Will of God. We implant it and develop it on earth. In a series of steps or numbers, we go from one (I) to eleven (II); from the third dimension of mortal consciousness to the fourth dimension of immortal consciousness. Along the way, anything that bends or tries to break us, that pushes us to the side or away from our steady vertical alignment with the One Power, has to be cut away with the sword and healed.

El Morya resonates to the number II, which also represents spiritual mastery on Earth. When incarnated as Mark, he was the co-founder with Nada-Yolanda of Mark-Age, Inc. and the I Am Nation. He is the Chohan or Director of the First Ray of Will and Power, a master in wielding the sword of truth under Archangel Michael of the First Ray. Mark made his transition (died) in 1981, but has continued to lead all light workers from his position in the higher astral and etheric planes. He is with us, behind us, and with other ascended masters and angels has our back; even though we do not physically see him, and even if we never met him in his lifetime as Mark (his picture is to left).

He not only has our backs, but he also cuts through the astral and physical negativity that attempts to derail us in our trek across the desert to the mountain (higher consciousness). Jesus said that he was going to prepare a place for us, into which we eventually could enter. In like manner, El Morya has seen and prepared the next step for us, and has visualized it as already being done. (This is represented in my dream by his hitting the golf ball to within a short distance of the hole.) With his sword of light, he has cleared the way, just as I was shown in my prior dream of August 9, in which a heavenly sword of light cut open the protective shell of the light workers and they stepped forth.

The green on the golf course portrays the green color of healing, balance, unity and equilibration. This is our next step and destination. We are moving into new healing powers, beginning with our own rebalancing and then radiating balance out to the whole planet.

Combining the above, here is El Morya's core message: Forward! Move forward in the light. The way is clear. Healing is before you. Still, be wise as a serpent and protect yourself at every step of the way. We are not out of the desert. However, at this stage of our journey, we are entering a green oasis, wherein we shall recoup, recover, refresh, equilibrate and further anchor Healing Haven of the I Am Nation on Earth.

All is well and in divine order. Move forward confidently, yet cautiously and carefully, with the power and the love of God. Enter into eleven in heaven on earth, a new heaven of oneness on a new Earth. Putt the ball into the hole, thus completing this step and entering into new wholeness. Focus anew on the One Power, Presence, Protection, Love, Peace and Unity, which is in the One Heart of God, the only place there is. This will produce an excellent score!
