

InVest: 58 – Vote for the I Am Nation

When it comes to politics, what are you for? If you live in the United States, in the upcoming midterm elections, for whom are you voting?

I'm voting for the Middle Way of peace and love, cooperation and coordination that is the spiritual political party of the I Am Nation. I'm voting for candidates who espouse this middle approach of taking the best of all sides, merging them in the middle, and then rising into I Am consciousness to receive divine guidance about new, higher, better solutions and applications.

Granted, only a few such politicians exist today. Be that as it may, they are the ones I am voting for, even though only a few, if any, of them will win. But, by voting for Middle Way proponents, they and I (we) will have won in the long run. In time, the Middle Way inevitably shall prevail and the I Am Nation shall descend upon a new earth. See it, invest in it, and be it!

Personal, partisan politics as we now know it never will solve any of the major problems and challenges of these End Times. Why? Because such politics is based upon the principle of competition, us-versus-them, I'm-right-and-you-idiots-are-wrong. Partisan, divisive politics is the problem, not the solution. Spiritually, there is only us. We are all spiritual beings.

So, although I may be in the minority now, I'm voting for the Middle Way, the only practical and pragmatic way to resolve and heal all the divisions, distractions, diseases and distortions of current-day government. I'm voting for a change in consciousness, a spiritual awakening of all politicians and all people. I'm voting for I Am Nation government that truly is of the people, for the people and by the people. I'm voting for peace, love, cooperation and coordination, and all who do their best to follow this cosmic way of the Christ or I Am Self.
