

144,000: 22 – Be a Blue-Green Holly Tree

As recommended by Lord Michael in my dream given in lesson "21 - Keep the Faith in the Garden of Green," I've found it very helpful to use a visualization of a blue-green holly (holy) tree. To survive, succeed in, and rise above the current challenges of transmutation from third to fourth dimensional consciousness, we are to be a holly or holy tree that is infused with equal parts of the colors royal blue and green.

To the right is a Nellie R. Stevens holly that grows in a pyramidal shape. It is about 7-8 feet tall. See yourself within it, such that the apex or top of the tree is a couple feet above your head. The tree's branches extend about an arm's length all around you. The trunk of the tree is your spine. The limbs and leaves come all the way down to the ground. Think of this holy tree as representing the Passion of the Christ, which is how it has been perceived down through the ages, because of its thorny leaves (hence the crown of thorns) and its red berries (thus the drops of blood that Jesus shed during his crucifixion). Each of us is traveling through our own unique transmutation and crucifixion (the crossing out of error) on our way to our glorious resurrection or rebirth of our light body.

Surrounded by and imbued with the holy essence of your Christ tree of life, rise above your physical brain or cerebrum into the apex or top section of the tree. This is the area of your lightbody brain. Imagine this region being the color royal blue, which is the color of faith. Affirm: I have the faith of my I Am or Christ Self; by this faith, I know the truth, reprogram any error in any throne in my physical cerebrum, and transmute any pattern that does not radiate the light of my beingness as a beloved, holy, harmonious, happy child of God. From your light body brain, royal blue light showers down into your physical brain, then cascades into each lower chakra and physical center, organ and system. Affirm: I am imbued with royal blue faith; I am a rock of faith; and by this faith I am healed.

To manifest this healing, focus now on your third eye chakra and pituitary gland. This is the primarily seat of your power of wisdom-judgment-justice, whose color is green and which expresses primarily via your endocrine glands. The seven major glands are: pineal at the top center of your head; pituitary in the center of your head; thyroid in your throat; thymus in front of your heart; pancreas in your abdomen; testes or ovaries in your regenerative center; and adrenal glands that sit atop your kidneys in the low back. Starting with the pineal gland and working downward, see each endocrine gland being lit up with green light. Under the guidance of your I Am Self, green light-body electricity or fourth dimensional energy flows into and stimulates each gland, imbuing it with wisdom, good judgment and divine justice. This brings balance and harmony, wholeness and holiness to each gland. In time, all seven glands are aglow with green healing light, which radiates out to all surrounding organs, so that all parts of you are bathed in holy green energy.

The royal blue light and the green light now blend together to form a deep aqua light, which represents spiritual power (we'll discuss this in June). By your faith, you are healed. By your harmonization, you fortify your faith. By having equal parts of faith and wisdom-judgment-justice, you call forth and utilize spiritual power. This has been bequeathed to you in part by Lord Michael, Archangel of the First Ray of Will and Power. By the faithful and wise use of this power, you can do all things and heal all imbalances by having Spirit do these things and these healings through you. So be it.

Each time you utilize this visualization, you may see a different shade of blue or green, and therefore of the combination of the two colors. Trust what you receive. Work with it. Go with the flow of it. Know that Father-Mother God, your guardian angels and your I Am Self always have just the right color, energy and combination of frequencies to bring forth your healing and that of others. Have Faith in this divine truth. Wisely and harmoniously anchor this in your mind, body and soul. By your faith and wisdom, pass through your crucifixion into your resurrection and renewal. So be it.
