

144,000: 46– Link with 12,000 Elect in Brazil & Argentina

As given in Birth of the Light Body, the power of order-organization-system functions on the masculine, positive, active polarity, whereas its partner power of zeal-enthusiasm expresses on the feminine, negative, passive pole.

In terms of the world's 12 power centers/countries, as a working hypothesis, we can think of order-organization-system as being located in the Western Hemisphere in the southern 2/3's of Brazil and in Paraguay, Argentina, Uruguay and southern Chile. (As previously noted, the northern one-third of Brazil with its Amazon Rainforest correlates with the power of will, and the northern part of Chile may relate to imagination.)

Order-organization-system expresses via three major systems in our physical body: the digestive system, the integumentary system (skin), and the skeletal system. The digestive system is composed of the mouth, esophagus, stomach, gall bladder, pancreas and small intestine, which work together in systematic, integrated and orderly fashion to break down and assimilate food.

By way of analogy, we might equate the southern 2/3's of Brazil to the stomach, Paraguay to the gall bladder, Uruguay to the pancreas, and Argentina to the small intestine. We can think of Chile, whose Andes Mountains travel the entire western coast of South America, as being like the vertebrae of the backbone.

Brazil is the world's fifth largest country by area and population. Having been a colony of Portugal, most Brazilians speak Portuguese. A large majority of its 192 million citizens live in the southern 2/3's of the country. Befitting its comparison to part of the digestive system, Brazil is the world's leading exporter of coffee, soybeans, beef, sugar and ethanol. It is the largest national economy in Latin America, the world's tenth largest economy, and is a member of the G-20.

Brazil has the world's largest community of spiritualists (mediums, spiritists or Kardecists), who claim to communicate with spirits in the astral planes. Such practitioners typically focus on the solar plexus/digestive center, which is the principal focus for lower psychic/astral sensations and exchanges, whereas the third eye is the primary center for higher psychic impressions and communion with those in higher astral and etheric (Christ) planes. Brazil also is the largest Catholic nation in the world.

Argentina gained its independence from Spain, so most of its 41 million citizens speak Spanish. Reflecting its correlation as an integral organ in the digestive system, Argentina has abundant natural resources, a well-educated population, an export-oriented agricultural sector and a relatively diversified industrial base. The name Argentina comes from the Latin argentum that means "silver," since this metal was mined in Argentina in its early days. Silver is the color for the soul or subconscious, and thereby relates partly to the solar plexus. Argentina has the second largest national economy in Latin America, and is the world's twenty-third largest economy. Like Brazil, it is one of the G-20 major economies.

Paraguay has 6 million citizens, Uruguay has 3 million and Chile has 17 million. In the past, part or all of these three countries were a part of, or governed by, Brazil and Argentina. Though separated now, and despite their various disagreements and challenges, all five countries are striving to function together as a one orderly and organized region that exchanges in a systematic, cooperative and coordinated way with the rest of the world.

Visualization: 12,000 elect live in these five nations that make up the order center. They are in every province of each nation, of every religion, of European and Asian backgrounds, descendants of African slaves or native Amerindians, in government and business and all other professions, young and old, practiced in metaphysics or everyday citizens who live the Golden Rule.

Wrap yourself in a cocoon of Christ light. Link with Sananda-Jesus in the etheric realms. See yourself in your light body atop Corcovado Mountain alongside the statute of Christ the Redeemer, which overlooks Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. (Yesterday, Rio was awarded the 2016 Summer Olympics.)

At the Last Supper, Jesus symbolically equated bread with his body and wine with his blood, which he served to his disciples -- he "fed" them the divine substance and cosmic life flow of his fourth-dimensional light or Christ body. After his resurrection, he cooked and fed fish (divine ideas) to his disciples, and instructed Peter three times to feed his sheep.

With Sananda-Jesus in I Am consciousness, feed the 12,000 elect or I Am Nation citizens throughout the southern part of South America. The color for order-organization-system is mustard yellow. This is a combination of yellow for sunlight, green for green plants and brown for the earth. In the first course of our supper with the 12,000 elect, bathe them in yellow sunlight that imbues their skin with divine vitamin D. In the second course, add green light that brings them harmony, wisdom, balance and order, which they feel in their gut. In the final course, radiate brown light that they incorporate into their bones, thereby solidly grounding their light body in and through their skeletal system and entire physical form.

All of the 12,000 elect are nourished, uplifted, sustained and inspired by this meal of manna from heaven. In response, these fellow I Am nation citizens transfer cosmic order and organization to all the other 250 million inhabitants of the five countries -- they feed these sheep. As a result, all is well in the order center of the world, which radiates divine order to the whole world. So be it. And so it is.
