

InVest: 6 – Invest in Blue Sapphires

To solidify, secure and seal our investment in faith that we have made all through the month of January, we now invest in the cosmic riches of blue sapphires. It is our Father-Mother's great pleasure to give us the etheric or fourth-dimensional type of these precious gemstones.

Royal blue is the color of faith, which is crystallized in blue sapphires. Charles Fillmore says that blue also is the color that represents Truth in all its purity (see Sapphira and Ananias in the Metaphysical Bible Dictionary and in Acts 5:1-11 for a fabulous lesson about the need to purify one's faith in order to demonstrate true prosperity). Via faith we perceive, believe, incorporate and crystallize in our cerebral circuits the universal cosmic truths of the universe. By our faith in these truths, we prosper, heal ourselves and others, and move mountains.

In nature, blue sapphires are found in the shape of 12-sided pyramids. Jewelers cut them into other shapes like oval and circular forms, and mount them in rings and pendants. We can think of the 12 sides of the natural pyramids as representing the 12 thrones in our cerebrum. The 12 facets also represent 12 cosmic truths (God is; He-She is in me and I Am in Him-Her; as we sow, so do we reap; etc.). Spirit mounts our blue sapphire in our crown chakra and cerebrum.

Visualization: Surround yourself in a cocoon of Christ light. Leave an opening at the top of your head where a tube goes up to Spirit. See a large letter V descending through the tube from the Godhead. In it is a round or oval royal blue sapphire. This etheric or fourth-dimensional gemstone also may be in shape of a 12-sided pyramid whose apex points downward.

Feel the anchoring of the blue sapphire and its crystallized Christ faith into your crown chakra in your astral body and down into the cerebral circuitry of your brain. Welcome this. Work with this. Focus on this until the sapphire is sealed, and invests its I Am faith, in the 12 thrones of your cerebrum. Begin to perceive that Spirit has planted 12 new cosmic seed-ideas in the fertile soil of your brain, which in time will filter into your conscious awareness.

Fortified with faith, picture and hover over Ho Chi Minh of Vietnam or President Rene Preval of Haiti. Royal blue light comes down from your brain to your hands, where it crystallizes as a blue sapphire. Gently and lovingly place this sapphire in the crown chakra and cerebrum of Ho Chi Minh, President Rene Preval of Haiti, or someone else who Spirit brings to your attention. Affirm: By your faith, you awaken, you are healed, you prosper, and you move mountains.

Picture yourself in your light body over Haiti or Vietnam or another country. Once again, royal blue light from the blue sapphire in your brain flows down through your arms and into your hands where it crystallizes. In conjunction with, and guided by, your angelic guardian and etheric guardians such as Sananda-Jesus or Sol-O-Man/Mary, place the blue sapphire in the capital city or spiritual capital of the nation below you. Via its multiple facets, the sapphire radiates faith to every individual there, who now move mountains to heal themselves and their whole nation. As you perceive and believe it, a new heaven descends to a new earth. So be it.
