

ONENESS 101: 27 – One Western Hemisphere

Visualize yourself in your light body high above the entire Western Hemisphere that consists of North, Central and South America. Think of the three Americas as being one body. The North is like the upper three chakras and corresponding organs, the South is like the lower three chakras and correlating physical structures, and the Central section is like the third eye and organs at the base of the brain. The all-seeing eye is the doorway between the spiritual and the physical, the light body and the physical body, the three upper and the three lower chakras.

The three Americas are a vital part of our yearlong Oneness 101 focus. North America is the first 1, Central America is the 0, and South America is the second 1. See all three areas as being equally important. No one is higher or lower in consciousness. The three are one triangulated team. The three Americas portray Oneness 101. As we see it, so shall it be.

As it is now, however, the Western Hemisphere is not fully integrated or united as one. Rather, each section, as well as parts of each area, more or less act in disjointed, diseased, dysfunctional ways. The three do not yet cooperate and coordinate in peaceful, loving ways.

Last year, Hilarion/Charles Fillmore, Chohan of the Fifth Ray of Unity, Healing and Integration, instructed and guided my wife, MariLyn, and me to go to Costa Rica. During our visit there from November 12-22, 2010, Hilarion and other masters in the higher planes projected new images through us as their healing team. Our core message to Central America was for all of its seven nations to unify and integrate, and for this harmonious unit to cooperate and coordinate with North and South America. One Western Hemisphere. 101 in the One.

During our time in Costa Rica, Hilarion on several attentions guided our attention to South America, and said that our next trip or mission would be there. This was the logical conclusion to Spirit's efforts to unify the Americas.

Our current tentative plan is to tour Brazil this fall. It is the largest of the 12 South America nations. When visiting the Amazon River in northern Brazil, the capital of Brasilia in Central Brazil, and Rio de Janeiro/Sao Paula in Southern Brazil, we will radiate unity, healing, harmony and integration not only to Brazil but also to all of the other 11 South America nations. All countries large and small, north and south, east and west are to unite as one whole, integrated nation, like the 50 states of the United States have done. Then, South America, Central America and North America are to come together as one and function as a unified hemisphere.

Our visit will cost a minimum of $10,000. When we went to Costa Rica, since the trip began as a delayed honeymoon, we paid for it with our personal funds. This time, from the start, we know that Hilarion is directing this trip and that all light workers are called to work with it in whatever way they are guided to do so from within. All of us are to do this mission together. Oneness 101.

So, please cast your net to the right to discover your role in this hemispheric healing work. Perhaps it will be mostly in prayer. Maybe you have contacts in Brazil that will be helpful. We have no funds to cover this trip, so your financial contributions are crucial. Please send donations to: Mark-Age, Inc., PO Box 10, Pioneer, TN 37847. Thank you and God bless you.
